Thursday, November 21st is Children's Grief Awareness Day. It is a day to keep in mind other kids having a hard time after someone special died. It is a day to reach out and show you care to someone who needs it. It is a day to remember those special people who have died-someone you know or someone who a friend knows. Children's Grief Awareness was begun to help others understand the impact of death on children and their need for support. Join us by wearing blue on Children's Grief Awareness Day to show your support to the grieving children around us. We will have other special activities planned that day as well.

Tutoring will be Monday - Thursday from 4-4:30pm in the dining hall.

Parents, Guardians, Faculty, and friends of Collegiate Academy,

Your Collegiate Academy Pride Battalion is kick starting this holiday season with our annual Angel Tree program. This year we are sponsoring the Sarah Reed Children's Center. We are asking students, teachers, family, and community members to aid us in providing Christmas gifts to children in need! The Angel Tree will be put up by the end of next week and will be outside the main office this year. The tree will have Angel tags which are attached that identify each child's request for Christmas, along with info about each child (age, clothing sizes, etc.). You may either take a tag or chose to provide stockings or stocking stuffers for the children. We ask that when you return the gift from an Angel tag, please attach your tag to the gift so we know who it goes to. The Children's Center has asked that we do not wrap any of the gifts this year. If you prefer to provide stockings or stocking stuffers, please mark the bag or container with "stocking stuffers" to identify them. To return the unwrapped gifts, simply place them under the tree or bring them to room 205. Deadline for providing gifts is Tuesday, December 17th, 2024. We appreciate your support and look forward to spreading holiday cheer for a child in need! If you have any questions, come see me in room 205 or by email at kwatson@eriesd.org.
