Attention students who love to make crafts and customize personal items! Mrs. Smith & Ms. Ulmer are starting a Cricut Club! We will be meeting after school on Mondays in room 104. Our first meeting is Mon, 11/18!

Thursday, November 21st is Children's Grief Awareness Day. It is a day to keep in mind other kids having a hard time after someone special died. It is a day to reach out and show you care to someone who needs it. It is a day to remember those special people who have died-someone you know or someone who a friend knows. Children's Grief Awareness was begun to help others understand the impact of death on children and their need for support. Join us by wearing blue on Children's Grief Awareness Day to show your support to the grieving children around us. We will have other special activities planned that day as well.

Attention Students, Registration is now open for Gannon spring dual enrollment. Please take note of the following information as Gannon is going to a new system and this applies to both new and returning dual enrollment students!

Deadline for registration is Friday, December 6th!

- All students will fill out their application form here Gannon Dual enrollment
- Once you submit your application, you will be directed to a landing page in order to finalize your application, you must follow the instructions listed on the page.
- The school authorization form must be completed and emailed to Ms. King who will then send it on to Gannon.
- Students must then monitor their email for information on activating their account with Gannon.

Congratulations to Hayden Henry who is the winner of the PBIS T-84 graphing calculator from last week. This week we are raffling off a pair of Airpods with a charging case. Be sure to enter by Friday Nov. 8th at noon for your chance to win a pair of Airpods and remember using Pride, Honor and Respect is how you can earn even more points.

Congratulations to the PBIS High Point Winners from last week:) In 9th grade, the winner is Elvira Ulasavets, from 10th grade both Ayah Al-Makhzumi and Jenny Babkin; 11th grader Lillie Williams; and in the 12th grade Sullivan Heutsche and Leonel Ledesma. Winners are posted on the PBIS door and also received a congratulatory email. Remember you can invite a friend with you each day during your scheduled lunchtime for the next 5 school days. Thanks for always showing your Pride, Honor, and Respect!

Tutoring will be Monday - Thursday from 4-4:30pm in the dining hall.

Activity Bus #52 arrival for Collegiate/VETS Stadium (26th Street Horseshoe) is 4:07pm. It will depart at 4:09pm.

Attention students, In order to ensure we have enough interest in the upcoming NYC trip, students need to place their $115 deposit by Wednesday, November 6th. There are currently 25 seats available and we must have a full bus to run the trip in order to keep costs down. Students will be required to attend the show if participating in this trip. Please see Ms. King with any questions.

There is a new bulletin board in the cafeteria for students to place club and activity announcements. Students are no longer allowed to post signs in the hallways or stairwells.

Looking for a book to read during the fall? Stop by the Little Lion Library, outside the cafeteria. You can keep the book if you'd like, or return it for someone else to enjoy. Donations are also accepted.

Intramural Volleyball has started. Games will be on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays after school in the gym from 3:50-5:00. Games will be played from September through November. Any questions or to sign up please see Mr. Luthringer in room 8.
